How does Flexible Delivery work?

Flexible Delivery is a combination of learning methods that gives you the freedom to learn from any location, using printed learning materials and accessing a pre-recorded webinar for each subject. Learning is completed through reading materials, such as Learner Guides and your assessment can be handwritten or typed up, depending on what suits you. There is also a class you need to attend in person, to learn the hands-on practical skills that are required. This class is offered at night and on weekends.

We support you to successfully complete, by assisting you with the following for every subject, which takes around seven hours per week:

- Read the Lerner Guide
- Watch the pre-recorded webinar
- Read the PowerPoint slides from the webinar
- Complete the assessment in handwriting or by typing the answers
- Contact your teacher if you have any questions
- Submit the assessment by the due date for each subject.

Your teacher guides you through all aspects, such as course content, assessments and general course work. Your teacher will also conduct a class, where you attend in person, to complete practical tasks. Students complete in blocks, so that they are not overwhelmed by completing the full course all at once. Each block has a completion date, however you can complete earlier, but not later. You must keep up with successfully submitting assessments on-time, or you may need to pay $500 to re-enrol and have new dates allocated to your subjects.

Practical Placement

Practical Placement allows students to complete work experience in a real-life workplace. It gives students the opportunity to gain skills and put classroom knowledge into practice. NIET has a range of places for students to undertake Practical Placement and gain valuable skills and connections. Students are required to successfully complete Practical Placement to gain the qualification. For learners who are working in the industry, working hours may be used for Practical Placement with the approval of the employer.

Assessment methods

NIET uses a range of assessment methods including:

- Written assessments
- Projects
- Case studies and scenarios
- Workplace portfolios
- Practical Placement logbook
- Practical Placement observations by NIET assessor

Education and support services

Students are provided with a range of support services depending on their individual needs. All students have access to their trainer, who has extensive experience and expertise in the course content and the aged care and disability industries. For further information regarding education and support services please give us a call, as we are always happy to assist.

ENROLMENT PROCESS

Industry requirements

We highly advise obtaining complete COVID vaccination for working in the disability industry and participating in placement, however it is not mandatory. To work in the age care industry and engage in practical placement, you must have a current flu vaccination and be fully COVID vaccinated.

In both aged care and disability industries, you will need to have Police Check and Working with Children's Check. Additionally, for working in the disability industry, you may require a NDIS screening check. These checks should be acquired prior to the commencement of the first class. Should you need assistance, we are here to help you.
